Little g had a

She said, "I will fill my box."

She opened the gate and went into the garden.

Little

found goats in the garden.

"In you go, goats," she said.

Then she found grass,

lots of green grass.

She put some grass into her box.

But the goats ate the grass.

Then she found grapes,

lots of grapes.

She put the grapes into her box.

But the goats ate the grapes too.

What could Little  do?

She found a gorilla.

She put the gorilla into her box.

Did the goats eat the gorilla? No.

The goats grinned.

The gorilla grinned.

Little found a guitar.

She played the guitar.

The goats danced with the gorilla.

Everyone giggled.

Little

found glasses.

She put glasses on the goats.

Then she found goggles.

She put goggles on the gorilla.

Just then a goose and gander walked by.

“What funny goats.
What a funny gorilla,”
said the goose and gander.

Little  caught them.

“I will put you into my box,” she said.

"I will give you a gift,"
said the goose.

She laid an egg made of gold.
"What a great gift,"

Little  looked around.

"What a great group of 'g's,' she said.
